Flexibility

Not everyone's career goals are the same. That's why The Plus Group lets you choose the type of placement that's best for you. Choose temporary work for flexibility and diversity. Or, go to direct placement if you prefer continuity.

Bridge

For many people, temporary work is the first step in securing a rewarding full-time position. And our Temp-to-Hire option creates a smooth transition by giving you the opportunity to work in a position before accepting it.

Training

Whether you need to learn an entirely new set of skills, or just brush up on some old ones, The Plus Group provides training that can increase your employability—and hourly wage.

Choice

Whatever your work preferences, The Plus Group can help you find the right position and schedule—and ultimately help you reach your career goals. With multiple employment options and a staff dedicated to finding you the best positions possible, it's clear why The Plus Group is the employer of choice for thousands of people just like you.
